

To whom it may concern:

The Concerned Families has been a really, really big help for me. I appreciate them giving me another chance at a new start. I am so thankful for being able to reside here. I have no room for any complaints because they blessed me with a place to stay for me and my kids. I enjoyed my stay here, and I thank them for obeying God and opening this place for women & their children.

Brandy Jordan
Brandy Jordan